

ROMANCE AND DATING FRAUD

Dating online is now one of the most popular ways for new couples to meet, with millions of people finding new relationships, romance and love this way. Unfortunately, amongst the genuine profiles are fake profiles set up by fraudsters. They are after your money, not your love. They are masters of manipulation, playing on your good nature and emotions to ultimately steal your money.

Criminals will build a relationship with online members, quickly asking to move communication off the dating website. This is so they can continue their contact with you, even if their profile is later identified by the site as fraudulent and subsequently deleted.

Fraudsters are often very flattering, appearing really interested in you within a short space of time. However, they will use a range of excuses as to why they can't meet in person, such as they are stuck overseas, have a family emergency or have an issue with their business. They then start asking for money to help with their problems, assuring you they will pay it back as soon as they can. The fraudster may claim to be desperate to meet you as soon as this obstacle is overcome. This is all a scam and their true intention is to take as much money from you as they can.

How to protect yourself

- ⚠️ Keep all communication on the dating website or app you are using.
- ⚠️ Don't be convinced by profile pictures, they may have been taken from somewhere else on the internet. You can check photos using a reverse image search on the internet through websites like <https://www.tineye.com> or <https://reverse.photos>.
- ⚠️ Do your own research on the person - are they members of any other social networking sites? Can you confirm what they are telling you about themselves, such as where they work or where they live?

TYPES OF FRAUD

- ⚠️ Never send money to someone you have not met in person and be extremely wary of giving money to someone you have recently started a relationship with.
- ⚠️ Be wary of anyone asking you to receive money on their behalf and transfer it on. They may be using you to launder money.
- ⚠️ Talk to family and friends for advice, even if the other party is asking you to keep the relationship secret.
- ⚠️ Watch the Metropolitan Police's video on Romance Fraud at www.met.police.uk/littlemedia.

Why are they so quick to declare their love for me? How do I know they are telling me the truth?
